

As I was walking...

Chapter 1 by SianneThe HoBo

I'm walking along an alleyway and I notice sounds, groaning sounds. I wondered what the noise was coming from, so as I continued to walk down, I had noticed that there was someone just lying there. That person looked very ill, or at least was very injured. I walk up to that person, and had noticed that it was a girl. She looked about 15, and she seemed to be unconscious. I look to see where she may have been injured at, and it seems her right leg was torn, her arm was scraped, and it looked like there were stab wounds on her torso, and her clothes were soaked in blood.

I also noticed her purse, lying to one side. Bills spilling from it.
